DOODLE FOR GOOGLE

DEADLINE: March 4, 2022

We all have a lot going on - and now more than ever, it's important for us to take care of our bodies and minds. What are your favorite things to do that make you feel better when you're feeling down? How do you take a break? What activities make you feel calm or give you energy? What or who brings joy to your heart? Our theme this year invites you to share how you nurture your mind, body, and/or spirit as you face the opportunities and challenges each day brings.

Khaled bin Sultan Living Oceans Foundation

SCIENCE WITHOUT BORDERS® CHALLENGE

DEADLINE: March 7, 2022

The Science Without Borders® Challenge is an international contest that engages students and teachers in ocean conservation through art. This annual competition inspires students to be creative while promoting public awareness of the need to preserve, protect, and restore the world's oceans and aquatic resources, contributing to the overarching goals of the Khaled bin Sultan Living Oceans Foundation.

The theme for this year's 10th annual Science without Borders® Challenge is "Ridge to Reef." Everything is interconnected from the land to the sea. For this year's theme, create a piece of art that illustrates one or more actions that governments, non-profits, park managers, and indigenous communities can take to preserve coral reefs using a ridge to reef approach to conservation. Never Such Innocence

LIFE AFTER CONFLICT CONTEST

DEADLINE: March 18, 2022

Brick by brick, life must be rebuilt after a conflict. It takes time to recover and resolutions may or may not be found. Countries and communities that were divided or destroyed need time to heal, to be reimagined, or sometimes even abandoned. For some, a parent, child or family member might be injured or not return at all. As time passes, community events, memorials and days of remembrance are held to honor those who were lost and provide opportunities for reflection. Share your thoughts on how people, communities and countries build a life after conflict using poetry, art, speech and song.

Bow Seat

11TH ANNUAL OCEAN AWARENESS CONTEST

DEADLINE: June 13, 2022

The 11th annual Ocean Awareness Contest is a platform for young people to learn about environmental issues through art-making and creative communication, explore their relationship to a changing world, and become advocates for positive change. Students ages 11-18 from around the world are invited to participate.

The 2022 Ocean Awareness Contest—THE FUNNY THING ABOUT CLIMATE CHANGE—challenges students to learn about climate change and its impact on the ocean, and to explore new ways to communicate the urgency of the climate crisis. Use humor, positivity, irony, or other unconventional approaches that are not typically used in environmental communication to address the climate crisis. Think outside the tackle-box, beyond clichés, to create something that makes the topic of climate change and our oceans more approachable and accessible.
